I'm very excited to return to Birmingham and spend my assignment at St. Paul's Cathedral. I am originally from Birmingham and attended St. Rose Academy and John Carroll. After graduating from John Carroll, I began my seminary studies for the Diocese of Birmingham at the Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio. After two years, Bishop Baker asked me to transfer to Theological College at the Catholic University of America. I recently graduated with my Bachelor's Degree in Philosophy from CUA and am working towards completing the requirements for a Licentiate in Philosophy. In addition to the usual seminarian summer assignment, I also will be writing my thesis for the degree. I enjoy keeping up with sports, learning different languages, reading, and trying new experiences. I look forward to getting to know each of you this summer!
